JEWELS GREEN TO SPEAK AT PRO-LIFE DINNER ON APRIL 8

Jewels Green was pressured into an abortion at age 17 and immediately spiraled into a deep depression. She attempted suicide and spent a month recovering in a psychiatric unit. After her hospital stay she masked her pain and anguish by staunchly supporting abortion rights. Jewels marched in support of abortion rights in Washington, DC just a handful of weeks after her traumatic abortion and suicide attempt then worked in an abortion clinic for 5 years of her young adulthood.

Since her change of heart, Jewels has been passionately devoted to the sacred cause of regaining legal protection for all human life at all stages of life. She will be signing copies of the book We Choose Life: Authentic Stories – Movements of Hope at the conclusion of the program. Her story is among those featured in the book.

West Virginians for Life President Dr. Wanda Franz will address the crowd as well as National Right to Life Political Director Karen Cross. A Silent Auction will also be a highlight.

The reception at Lakeview Golf Resort and Spa in Morgantown begins at 6:00 p.m. and the dinner promptly at 7:00 p.m.

The Educational Trust is a charitable division of West Virginians for Life. If interested in reservations or table sponsorships, call the West Virginians for Life state office in Morgantown at (304) 594-9845, email wvforlife@labs.net or fax (304) 594-9849.

West Virginians for Life, the state affiliate of the National Right to Life Committee, is the state's largest pro-life group with more than 35 local chapters. West Virginians for Life works through education, legislation and political action to protect those threatened by abortion, infanticide and euthanasia.
